

Live Telecast!

From the heart of the West Side's water crisis.

Thursday, September 17

Sean Hannity of Fox News will be in the valley in person to do his entire television show, live from the West Side. He will focus on the valley's government-imposed water crisis and all the personal, economic and social grief it is causing.

Show time is 6 p.m.

But since thousands of people are expected,

Be at the site no later than 5 p.m.!

Sean's show will originate in the midst of a tomato field fallowed this year for lack of water.

South side of Highway 198, exactly eight miles west of Lemoore Naval Air Station

California Latino Water Coalition Chairman

Paul Rodriguez

Will be present and part of Sean's show!

PLEASE BE THERE AND SHOW THE NATION HOW MUCH WE CARE